Russian Guns Shell Germans Inside Austria

Soviet Forces Have Advanced
To Within Fifty Miles
Of Vienna

PORT OF GDYNIA ON BALTIC TAKEN

(BULLETIN)
MOSCOW, March 29.—(INS)—
The battle for the Austrian border was opened today by two powerful Soviet armies whose massed artillery batteries hurled tons of shells into enemy positions west of the frontier, over which the Reds were expected to plunge at any hour.

Fresh Russian reinforcements raced across the Raba river on their way to the front, now extending to within less than 10 miles of the frontier.

By NATALIA RENE
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, March 29.—
Two Soviet armies, crushing through Nazi defenses in Hungary along a 100-mile front, advanced to within 50 miles of Vienna today and started lobbing artillery shells on German troop concentrations inside Austria.

Strong forces of Soviet aircraft roared into the battle, hammering at Nazi armor and infantry along the frontier defenses of Austria as the battle for the "back door" to Germany increased to furious intensity.

At the same time a Nazi DNB commentator admitted the Germans had withdrawn from their bridgehead east of the Oder river

PA NEWC Observes

Grant street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad is in worse condition at present that it has been for many years, according to motorists who are required to operate cars over the crossing. A ton possibly less, of some appropriate material would alleviate the condition, they say.

Another evidence of the unusually early spring weather is to be noted in the fact that Magnolia trees around the city are bursting into bloom. The large tree on the Smith property at Highland avenue and Hillcrest, is full of blossoms and will soon be at its prettiest.

Prosecution of owners of dogs allowing their canines to run at large, now under way by state agents here, will probably result in a halt to this practice around the city. Reports to Pa Newc indicate that dogs have been running at large in various sections of the city recently, despite the state laws.

Preliminary work in repairing some of the havoc wrought on state highway routes through the city by the unprecedented winter, is being done. Some of the holes in surfacing of the streets are being filled. An extensive repair program will be needed to restore condition of many of the streets, both by the state highway department and the city streets department.

Tomorrow is Good Friday, and as such will be observed as a holiday by some institutions, in addition to being generally observed throughout the city and county with special religious services.

Numerous small rubbish fires blazed in the Walmo section on Wednesday evening as residents worked on the annual spring cleanup of gardens and yards.

Americans Press Deeper
Into City Against Fanat-

REVEAL CONFLICT IN GERMAN RANKS

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
FRANKFURT-AM-MAIN, March 29.—American Third Army forces pressed deeper into Frankfurt today against fanatical Nazi resistance units.

It is estimated conservatively that the industrial city, half of which is in American hands, is 70 to 80 per cent in ruins.

The final battles for possession of the Main river metropolis were believed to have been fought between the Third Army and the German army and Nazi party members determined to make it a last-ditch fight.

The fanatical Nazi elements strive ruthlessly to throw civilians remaining in the city into the fray and precipitated a fight between residents and SS men.

Conflict In City
According to numerous reports the burghmaster and some civilians tried to have Frankfurt declared an open city. When some civilians tried to disarm Nazis wishing to continue the fight the SS fired on them, killing some and wounding others.

It is fully evident that the Americans in Frankfurt are fighting solely Nazis and not the German army. From information pieced together it was learned that the Nazis almost a week ago ordered the population to evacuate. The next day,

Allied Prisoners Of Japs Are Placed Near Bomb Targets

(BULLETIN)
LONDON, March 29.—(INS)—The Japanese placed Allied prisoners of war camps in Japan and Burma close to bombing targets, in an effort to make them immune from bombing. Arthur Henderson, financial secretary to the British war office declared in the house of commons today.

Despite repeated protests through the protecting power, taken after consultation with Britain's Allies the Japanese persisted in this violation of article nine of the international convention on treatment of war prisoners, Henderson said.

NEW YORK, March 29.—(INS)—
Yugoslav troops have liberated the town of Bihac in northwest Yugoslavia after three days of fighting in the streets against "bitter enemy resistance," the new Yugoslav telegraphic service said today, according

German Army On Rhine Is Beaten Declares Stimson

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson said today that the German army on the Rhine battlefront is "beaten."

The secretary made this announcement at his news conference. At the same time he warned the German people that if the allies must fight from village to village they "present leadership and they who tolerate it will bear the responsibility."

After surveying the Rhine crossings which have brought the allies from 50 to 85 miles beyond the German river stronghold, Stimson declared that as supply lines extend the Nazis may find a temporary line of resistance.

"Where the American First and Third armies surged across the Rhine the enemy line was thin and broke under the hammer blows," he declared. "Even in the north the American Ninth army and the British Second army made their crossing comparatively easy."

May Be Temporary Line
"This picture of the western front makes clear in no uncertain terms that the German army on the Rhine is beaten. It is conceivable that as our supply lines greatly expand, the Nazis find some other

Early Speech By Hitler Is Expected

Correspondent Says Germans Have Been Hoping Japan Would Sue For Peace First

LONDON, March 29.—(INS)—The London Evening Standard's Lisbon correspondent reported today that Hitler would make an important speech during the next few days.

He was quoting high ranking Argentine diplomats reaching Lisbon aboard the exchange ship "Drot-tingholm," who have been in touch with diplomatic sources since their arrival.

The diplomats are certain that the speech will be unusual and say that until now the Germans have been hoping Japan would sue for peace first, and thus leave the Wehrmacht in a position to say they did not lose the war, but were let down by their allies.

Capt. Craig Says That Al-

VIENNA IS KEY TO GREAT AREA

By CAPTAIN JOHN H. CRAIG
(Written Especially for L. N. S.)

Feature of the triumphant United Nations east-west forward surge that is being most closely watched by the world's diplomats and soldiers, is the race between Lieut. Gen.
George S. Patton's galloping tanks of the American Third Army and Soviet Marshal Rodion Malinovsky's
Second Ukrainian Army for Vienna.

Gen. Patton's mechanized columns have been moving faster since they crossed the Rhine, but they have much farther to go than have their Russian rivals in the race. And within the past few days the Red Army has been putting a lot of weight behind its offensive in Hungary and Austria, and the front there, which had been stabilized for more than a month, has again begun to creak and reel backward before fresh Russian lunges.

Franco-Italian Border Positions Of Nazis Shelled

ROME, March 29.—(INS)—Units of the British and French navies have carried out heavy bombardments of German positions along the Franco-Italian border, Allied Mediterranean headquarters reported today, blasting Port Maurizio some 10 miles east of Mentone and surrounding installations.

Fighters and fighter-bombers of the tactical air force attacked Nazi barges in the Venice area, hit enemy communication lines in the vicinity of Milan and strated road transports in northern Italy.

Bad weather limited air activities to 250 sorties and brought land activities along the American Fifth and British Eighth Army fronts to a standstill.

ROUTE 322 MAY BE NAMED AFTER LT. GEN. SPAATZ

HARRISBURG, March 29.—(INS)—
The Senate rules committee had a resolution today proposing traffic route 322, known as the "Lakes to Sea" highway, be named in honor of Lt. Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander of the U. S. Strategic Air Force in the European Theater of Operations.

The resolution was co-sponsored by Democratic Senators Frank
Ruth, Berks, and Israel Stiefel, Philadelphia. The highway runs from Lake Erie to Philadelphia.

Carrier Planes Of Pacific Fleet Blast Jap Ships

Report 17 To 19 More Jap
Surface Vessels Damaged
In Ryukyu Waters

NO CONFIRMATION OF INVASION YET

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ADVANCED PACIFIC FLEET
HEADQUARTERS, Guam, March 29.—U. S. carrier planes of the Pacific fleet, credited with damaging 17 to 19 more Jap surface vessels in the Ryukyu waters, were reported today by the enemy radio to be again striking at the Nipponese homeland.

Shortly after Fleet Adm. Chester
W. Nimitz announced that American warships and planes continued to shell and bomb widespread areas of the strategic Ryukyu chain southwest of Japan Wednesday, the Tokyo radio said that aircraft of famed task force 58 battered the Kure naval base on Honshu. Southern Kyushu, said to have been twice hit by 90 naval planes on Wednesday, also was reported on the receiving end of U. S. bombing runs early today.

Kure Area Struck
Declaring that "several" American carrier-borne planes hit the Kure area, raided when task force 58 inflicted "crippling" blows on Jap fleet units in the inland sea of Japan, the enemy broadcast asserted that only "negligible" damage was inflicted early today.

Nimitz still ignored the enemy reports which insist that an invasion of the Kerama group of the Ryukyus got underway Sunday with fighting in progress on islands 400 miles south of Kyushu. However, he did announce that carrier air-

Step Up Speed Of Allied Advance

Security Blackout Continues
To Obscure Real Progress
Made In Germany

PARIS, March 29.—(INS)—Dispatches from 21st Army Group Headquarters disclosed that the British, Canadian and American forces in Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's command were stepping up the pace of their slashing advance.

However all place names which would pin-point the progress north of the Ruhr were withheld under a security blackout.

A spokesman at supreme headquarters said the advance was so rapid that identification of new points seized would be of value to the Germans who have become confused by the lightning penetration of their positions.

Fair Weather On Easter Forecast

Rain Expected Late Today Or Friday May Be Gone By Sunday,
Weatherman Says

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—(INS)— Folks in Western Pennsylvania may not have to worry about rain ruining their new bonnets at the Easter parade, according to a prediction hazarded today by Pittsburgh's weather forecaster, W. S.
Brotzman.

Saying that it was "still too early" to predict more, Brotzman indicated that the little rain which must fall into each life today or tomorrow may well be gone by Sunday.

The weatherman warned that there was some peril ahead for budding fruit trees in "the killing frosts we can expect" in April and May. Yesterday's high temperature of 80 degrees—one below the record for the date—in Pittsburgh was scheduled for a drop by tomorrow,
Good Friday, Brotzman added.

British Tanks Reported 38 Miles Beyond The Rhine

NEW YORK, March 29.—(INS)—
British tanks, according to Allied pilots returning from flights over the Ruhr front today, are entering a town 38 miles beyond the Rhine on the main road to Muenster, the British radio said.

on the road to Muenster.

Yanks Pursue Fleeing Japs On Island Of Cebu

Capital Captured Although Badly Ruined By Enemy
Action, Says Report

REPORT 23 MORE JAP SHIPS BLASTED

By JOHN CASHMAN
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, March 29.—Troops of the American Division chased the fleeing Jap forces into the hills of Cebu today, having captured the badly-ravaged capital of that newly-invaded Philippine island along with 11 other towns.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, in a communique telling also of the sinking or damaging of 23 enemy surface vessels in the China Sea, announced capture of these Cebu communities within a day after the liberation forces invaded that island.

Capture of Cebu City, second largest of the entire Philippine archipelago with a pre-war population of 150,000, was effected by two-way enveloping action which forced the Jap garrison to withdraw. The Yanks advanced "rapidly" on the flank and rear of the city's "elaborately prepared defensive positions," MacArthur said.

It forced their evacuation with light casualties to our troops," the U. S. five-starred general continued, adding that, though Cebu was "badly damaged by the enemy," the city's port area was "virtually intact."

"Our forces are now pursuing the enemy to the north," MacArthur declared.

Swarms of American warplanes, supporting the U. S. ground advance, swooped down to attack the Jap columns in their retreat. Inter-dicting fire was maintained against all lines of communication with the loss of but one American plane.

New Bomb Raids Against Japan

NEW YORK, March 29.—(INS)—
Japanese broadcasts recorded by the FCC today reported American bombing raids against the enemy homeland, including the Kure naval base area, and both Formosa and Singapore.

A broadcast by the enemy-operated transmitter in Singapore admitted a two and a half hour attack on that naval base area but claimed no damage was suffered.

An attack by about 60 American bombers and fighters on Formosa, with airfields and installations along the main north-south rail line as the main targets, was reported by the Tokyo radio.

An earlier Tokyo broadcast said bombs were dropped on the Kure naval base sector on the southeast coast of Honshu Island by carrier-based craft which also were said to have raided southern Kyushu.
Damage allegedly was negligible.

PRESIDENT BACK FROM HYDE PARK

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—
President Roosevelt returned to the White House today after spending four days at Hyde Park and immediately began a series of conferences with cabinet members and congressional leaders.

VANDERGRIFT PROMOTED
WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—
President Roosevelt today nominated Lt. Gen. Alexander A. Vandergrift, commander of the Marine Corps, to be a full general.

ALL ALLIED ARMIES MAKE NEW GAINS

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, March 29.—The greatest military sweep in history overwhelmed the major defenses of western Germany today as Allied armies operating under an airtight news security blackout were reported surging against Hanover, only 140 miles from Berlin, and other last-ditch garrisons of the crumbling Reich.

With Soviet troops reported operating at the border of Austria following their terrific lunge through the plains of western Hungary, the possibility of an Allied-Russian junction in the interior of Germany mounted steady-ly.

But actual developments were clouded in an unprecedented mantle of secrecy.

First Army Smashes Ahead
Troops of the United States First Army, plunging almost unchecked across Germany against sporadic resistance that clearly indicated collapse, today reached undisclosed points, 85 miles east of the Rhine and the Third Army unhinged vital Nazi defense garrisons at the gateways of southern Bavaria.

Headquarters of Gen. Dwight D.
Eisenhower, issuing only scanty information under wraps of the most intensive security blackout imposed since the war began, confirmed previous German admissions of the

Town Of Marburg Taken By Allies

Ninth And Third U. S.
Armies Are Linked Along 120 Mile Front Beyond Rhine

By LEE CARSON
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE U. S. FIRST ARMY,
Germany, March 29.—The First Army's Ninth Armored division linked forces with Lieut. Gen. George
S. Patton's Third Army last night southeast of Limburg.

The junction gave the two armies
a 120-mile unbroken line beyond the east bank of the Rhine.

The news blackout was lifted sufficiently to reveal that First Army tanks have captured the town of Marburg, north of Giessen.

Infantry troops of Gen. Patton's Third Army moving up, met the Ninth Armored Division at Niederhausen, on the Frankfurt autobahn to close the gap which had separated the armies.

First Army tank columns now are driving north and east. The eastern thrust carried through Marburg and across the Lahn river to Amoneberg, 85 miles east of the Rhine.

Oil Plant Damaged By Fire Today At Zanesville, Ohio

ZANESVILLE, O., March 29.—
(INS)—A fire and series of explosions destroyed the Zanesville bulk plant of the Pure Oil Company early today with a loss unofficially estimated at $100,000.

The fire broke out when a gasoline transport truck arrived in the plant yards. The truck, along with two other smaller tank trucks parked in the yard, were destroyed.

Approximately 100,000 gallons of gasoline, kerosene and naphtha were destroyed, along with the company's divisional offices. An adjacent restaurant and filling station and a grocery store across the street from the bulk plant were damaged.
Windows within a radius of a block were shattered.

Grant James, 30, driver of the transport truck, was seriously burned.

Bastogne Heroes Are Coming Here

Six Americans Who Went Through Defense Of Bastogne Coming On April 4 And 5

Up to now the heroic defense of Bastogne, by the 101st Airborne Division of the Army of the United States has been merely something we read of in the newspapers. On April 4 and 5 New Castle will know more of the defense of Bastogne from six American lads who went through the agony of December 20 to 26, 1944. For the heroes of Bastogne are coming to New Castle.

Roger Jewett, deputy chairman of the Seventh War Bond campaign announced today that the heroes of Bastogne would come to New Castle on April 4 and 5 for a tour of several plants engaged in production of war materials. They will be in charge of Captain David L. Baird, a veteran of two years in the South Pacific.

The Bastogne veterans will arrive in New Castle on the morning of April 4 and will be received by Mayor John F. Haven. At 11:30 a press conference will be held and at noon they will be guests at a service club luncheon.

The entire schedule of their visit here is not yet completed, but among the plans to be visited will be the Oliver Iron and Steel company, the United Engineering and Foundry company and the Lockley Machine company. Others may be added.

Westinghouse In Propulsion Field

PHILADELPHIA, March 29. — (INS)—The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company today announced the creation of a new division for the manufacture of the first wholly-American designed jet propulsion aircraft engine.

Company engineers in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia began working on the designs a few hours after the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, a spokesman said.

The new turbine, small and compact, has only one movable part and compressed air flows through the engine at 1,000 miles an hour, he explained.

miles of Vienna. The country ahead of them is difficult, but the Soviet forces have been forging forward at a slow but steady pace which the Germans have thus far been unable to halt. Patton on the other hand, despite the blazing speed of his recent advances, is still more than 350 miles from Austria's ancient capital, with the rugged mountains of central Bavaria to pass.

If the Russians beat Gen. Patton to Vienna, they will occupy one of the most valuable key-spots on Europe's military, political and economic map. In Vienna center Europe's most important historic lines of communications connecting the northern part of the continent with Italy and the Balkans and joining the Atlantic seaboard with central Europe and the east. Under the old city's bridges flows the blue Danube, great avenue of heavy traffic, stretching from the Alps to the Black Sea.

Boss of All Europe
Bismarck said that whatever power occupies Vienna and Prague, with the highways, mountain passes and roads they control, is the boss of all Europe east of the Rhine. Not only is this true in a military and political sense, but also in industry and finance. Austria's strategic location has enabled her factories and banks to play a pre-dominant part in the affairs of vast areas of central and southern Europe since the beginning of the modern era.

In view of the long-recognized importance of Vienna and its surrounding Austrian territory, there is little doubt that its fate was discussed at the meeting of the allied big three statesmen at Yalta. According to reports published at the time, but never confirmed officially, the Austrian capital was to be occupied by American forces, with the Russians controlling north-eastern Austria and the British policing the eastern and southern portions of that country.

NAZIS BATTLE IN FRANKFURT

when a house to house search was made, thousands of residents went into hiding.

Order From Hitler
German army officers meanwhile practically disappeared and word went around that the Wehrmacht had given up the city, considering it defenseless. Then the Nazis themselves took a powder. However, after a stiff order from Hitler, the Frankfurt garrison, accompanied by party members and SS units, returned and attempted to get the civilians to put up a fight.

The importance of such Nazi resistance lies in the fact that it reflects the gradual dissolution of the Wehrmacht as the Allied power drive splits German stronghold after stronghold and boils the last stages of the battle for Germany down to local fights directed by regional Nazi leaders.

Surge 20 Miles Ahead
To the north of these powerful American forces, British, Canadian and American troops of the 21st Army Group surged 20 miles to the east, bursting out onto the Westphalian plains—the shortest, smoothest and easiest route to Berlin.

Armored spearheads of the British Second and the United States First and Third armies rolled eastward virtually unopposed, with infantry mopping-up bypassed towns.

Official estimates said that the First Army headed by Lieut. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges picked up 13,000 German prisoners yesterday alone, including 5,995 hospitalized enemy wounded.

The First Army also liberated 277 seriously wounded Americans held in unsanitary, unsavory box-cars west of the town of Wetzlar.

Troops of the Third Army took 5,510 enemy prisoners in the past 24 hours.

Most of the information concerning rapid Allied progress through Germany came from enemy sources.

Sweep Through Above Ruhr
The vast strides being made by the American First and Third armies in lunges at the heart of the Reich were rivaled by the northern Allied army groups sweeping eastward north of the Ruhr.

At supreme headquarters it was announced officially that for security reasons a silence had been imposed on reports of greatest progress by units of the 21st Army group under command of Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery.

The blackout was imposed by Marshal Montgomery, directing assaults of the British Second Army and the American Ninth, because of the rapidity of the Allied advance in the Ruhr zone of operations.

"Details of the advance would be of value to the enemy," a headquarters spokesman said.

Earlier reports told of Soviet gains through Hungary of up to 13 miles in which 550 towns and villages, including one only 10 miles from the Austrian border, were seized.

Ten Miles From Frontier
Marshal Fedor Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian Army, which beat down savage German resistance to cross the Rabe river, seized the important rail and highway junction of Csorna, only 10 miles from the frontier. The Russians, if they maintain their present rate of advance, will be well within Austria by nightfall.

The Second Ukrainian Army under the command of Marshal Rodio Malinovsky, fighting on Tolbukhin's right flank, advanced 18 miles and threw the Germans out of Győr which is second only to Budapest as Hungary's greatest industrial center.

In addition to Győr, 20 miles east of Csorna, Malinovsky's victorious columns also seized Komaron, 25 miles farther east on the banks of the Danube river.

More than 1,500 prisoners and enormous stocks of war materials were seized by the second Ukrainian forces which also gained control of the aircraft and artillery plants of Győr.

The Soviet communique was silent on the progress of Malinovsky's forces north of the Danube but Berlin admitted they had made progress in their drive beyond the Hron river toward Bratislava, gateway to Vienna.

FOOD RATIONING... assures you a fair share

• More than ever before, Uncle Sam is asking for your help to make food rationing work successfully, so that you and your neighbors will be assured a fair share of scarce foods.

Of course, rationing is inconvenient. And it's a pity that there will always be a few cheaters. But it is a great tribute to the people of this country that the vast majority have played square, have put patriotism and decency ahead of selfish interest.

They know that food rationing is necessary and that it can succeed only if every fair minded person plays the game according to the rules.

No Place For Visitors

San Francisco, traditionally one of the most hospitable of cities, has been compelled to take down its "welcome" sign and substitute "standing room only." For the coming world security conference of the United Nations will strain local accommodations to the utmost.

The Office of Defense Transportation has joined the municipal authorities in urging that only those officially connected with the meeting journey to San Francisco next month. The railroads, already congested, are preparing to assume additional burdens of westward traffic when Germany falls. But even under present conditions the carriers have about all they can handle and any breakdown of equipment or disarrangement of schedules might prove exceedingly serious.

San Francisco's hotel and boarding house rooms were taken long ago and visitors may have to seek refuge in private homes. Travel to the Pacific Coast will not be comfortable, and the problem of getting back will present many difficulties. The average looker-on is not likely to enjoy himself, nor will he gain any clearer knowledge of what takes place at the conference than if he stayed home and read the accounts of the trained reporters.

So those who pass up San Francisco during the momentous meeting will serve their best interests and those of the country.

Loss Of German Life

Some estimates place German losses in this war—dead, wounded, missing, captured—at 10,000,000. Regardless of whether this includes civilian dead and injured in bombing raids and the losses of Axis satellites fighting with the Nazis, it is a terrible blow for a nation with a prewar population of approximately 75,000,000.

That these losses may be confined to German army troops is suggested by figures that have been revealed on German casualties on the Western Front. Since the Normandy invasion the Anglo-American armies have captured more than 1,500,000 Germans. During the present operations along the Rhine alone the Allies have taken more than 200,000 prisoners, the equivalent of 17 full-strength divisions. Probably as many more have been eliminated as fighters by death and wounds.

The Russians have claimed as high as 10,000,000 Nazi losses since Hitler began his Soviet adventure in June, 1941. Counting Hungarians, Romanians, Italians, Finns and others, the figure seems plausible. Hitherto Russia and China have been regarded as the heavy losers in human life in this war. Indications now are that Germany will be the heaviest loser, in proportion to population, of any nation in the history of warfare. It is a fate deserved by the most militaristic of the nations of the world.

It Can Be Done

Perhaps because people are accustomed to hearing of deaths and injuries in industry, they do not ask themselves why more is not done to reduce this enormous toll. Battle casualties impress everyone, but they occur only during wartime. Accidents in industry occur daily, year after year, in peacetime and wartime, and the total for any one year is shocking.

Theodore P. Smith, president of the Oliver Iron and Steel corporation, in addressing the Metropolitan Chapter of the American Society of Safety Engineers in New York, said that American management had found itself capable of turning in a magnificent production job and that it is capable of turning in an equally impressive job of accident reduction. If management took the same trouble to determine the cause of accidents as it does to determine the reason for damaged tools, the battle against accidents would be practically won, he said, adding that the 41,000 deaths on the job last year was a black mark against the efficiency of industrial organizations. He strongly urged that management take an active interest in public safety.

This statement coming from a prominent industrialist shows what could be done in reducing industrial deaths and injuries. Despite great strides made by management in this direction in recent years, much remains to be accomplished.

A Constructive Program

There is one type of public construction that does not put government into competition with private enterprise—roadbuilding, which all the people can use. Those who think they have no interest in an adequate highway system because they do not use it extensively, should revise their opinion. Even in peacetime, good roads are an essential part of the transportation machinery that keeps the country going.

According to the American Roadbuilders Association, 75,000 miles of the nation's 415,000 miles of main state highways, are worn out roads of 20 or more years of service, which must be rebuilt. Another 47,000 miles should be widened for safety's sake and to eliminate congestion. Highways that should be relocated to save time and distance, total 37,000 miles. Nearly 160,000 miles, or more than one-third of the main state highways, require major improvement. Some 39,000 unsafe bridges must be rebuilt or widened.

In addition, several hundred thousand miles of the more than 2,400,000 miles of county and farm-to-market roads require improvement, grading and drainage or light surfacing. Thousands of miles of city streets need reconstruction or new surfacing.

All of this work should be done by competitive bidding by private contractors. In this way, it would be done at minimum cost, while at the same time stimulating employment and the expansion of private business both directly and indirectly.

An intelligent road construction program is an activity in which the Federal government can cooperate with states without competing with its own citizens in business.

We have been trying to think of what insect the Jap mostly reminds us. We think it is the tick.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Russian Censorship

And Freedom Of Press

WASHINGTON, March 29.—On the basis of my own experience, I would say that political censorship of the news out of Western Europe is negligible. Occasionally it is invoked to protect the feelings of Allies in the war, but such instances seem to be rare.

In Eastern Europe the story is quite a different one. American correspondents have not been permitted into countries liberated by Soviet armies. Briefly they were allowed in Bucharest, but Soviet censorship there made it impossible to write more than obvious impressions.

In Yugoslavia, during a brief stay, I encountered a political censorship that was severe and at the same time exceedingly naive. Having written two columns summing up surface impressions, I concluded by saying that it was clear that Marshal Tito still faced very grave problems.

He is confronted with ancient racial hatreds, fanned by adroit Nazi propaganda aimed at setting Croat against Serb and Serb against Slovene. He must try to work toward the forms of democracy in a part of the world where dictatorship has been the rule rather than the exception. Granting Tito the utmost good will, it seemed to me then, as it does now, that the outcome can be determined only with infinite patience and the passage of time.

I then took my copy to the censor. He proved to be a stocky, powerfully-built officer of the Partisan army. He remained standing while an assistant read in Serbian what I had written. From time to time he made notes on the back of a match box. When the reading was finished, he requested several minor changes of information which might have been remotely connected with military security, and those, of course, were made without question. Then, however, he announced that it would be necessary to strike out the discussion of Yugoslavia's future and any doubts as to whether it would become a democracy.

"You don't understand," he said. "Field Marshal Alexander made a speech two nights ago and he said that we had a democracy. Also he said we had achieved Slavic federation. So it must be true."

That kind of censorship grows out of insecurity. It is symptomatic of a new regime that is feeling its way uncertainly, improvising in most government departments.

The British, with at least our tacit acquiescence, have underwritten Tito. They saw no alternative except years of bloodshed and violence. Now that he has powerful backing and is free of the fear that the Western powers might intervene, Tito should surely be able to relax some restrictions and, foremost among them, this naive censorship.

It is calculated, it seems to me, to engender suspicion and distrust where, with a free exchange of news, none need exist. That is true throughout Eastern Europe. A flood of rumors about conditions in Budapest is being dammed up behind the Russian refusal to allow anyone from the outside into that stricken city.

Conditions in Hungary's capital can hardly be more appalling than in Cologne or Frankfurt, where bombing and siege have done their worst. But in the absence of firsthand information, sinister reports are circulating about the horrors that exist in the streets of the once beautiful city on the Danube.

This, it seems to me, is a lesson which Russia must learn if any real understanding is to grow up between the partners in this war. The phrase, "sphere of influence," seems logical when the Soviet Union insists on maintaining barriers around the countries occupied by Soviet troops.

Correspondents of the Soviet news agency Tass have the same opportunities to visit the western front as any other correspondent. A Tass correspondent in a Soviet officer's uniform has all the privileges of the hotel in Paris that is headquarters for the several hundred reporters covering the war from there.

The present policy of exclusion in Eastern Europe—and the resulting broad enough to cover United States officials as well as correspondents—seems of a piece with the shrill criticism that emanates from such Soviet journals as "War and the Working Class." At Yalta the British were reported to have discussed frankly this problem of free exchange of news. It would be good to see some tangible evidence of the changes agreed to at the end of those talks.

Without a moment's hesitation he swung the car around and turned back and the traffic policeman handed him a ticket for driving the wrong way on a one-way street.

When his case came up in court, the chauffeur explained about the black cat, and after due consideration, the Judge pronounced: "Case dismissed."

The following day, the Judge received a package containing a rabbit's foot, some white powder and a half dozen assorted charms.

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

UNUSUAL CASE HISTORY

CITED

I am always delighted with a letter which tells me of victory over a hard problem.

"Dear Dr. Myers: Some few years back, I wrote you concerning a problem very close to me. The temper and behavior of a child who apparently felt at odds with the world, whose mother, myself, was irked because he had to be a boy instead of a girl."

"You stated in your letter that, inasmuch as I seemed to know and admit the cause of the child's behavior, I was at least half way through my battle with comparative peace. You further suggested methods and means for a closer relationship between the two of us."

"Of course you know that situations such as these cannot be corrected in a period of weeks or even months. But I am pleased to report to you after a period of five years and some ups and some downs, I feel that we both have made noticeable progress toward a wonderful mother-son relationship."

"His hugs and kisses at odd moments tell in ways that words can't express that perhaps I have won him over."

Unusual Case

"Perhaps you do not remember this one case, but your words of encouragement have stayed by in times of need and only now do I feel that because of your success I can write. We have tried and I feel that we both have made progress. We have tried and I feel that we both have made progress. We have tried and I feel that we both have made progress."

"You can be sure I wrote her of my great joy over her victory and admiration of her great self-discipline. And I could truthfully tell her that I vividly recalled the first letter she wrote me since it was so unusual."

"Many mothers write me of their experience in reading to the young child."

Dear Dr. Myers: I have just finished reading your book, "Books and Babies," and have been reading it over and over again.

The World and the Mud Puddles

A "COMMON DENOMINATOR"

One of the favorite brands of "mud" dealt out by demagogues comes in the form of panegyrics to a mythical figure whom they call the "common man."

The implication they leave is that the great bulk of the people, whom they place in this category, are ignorant, neglected, oppressed, exploited and abused by some equally mythical group described as the "upper classes."

The corollary implication is that the demagogue has a monopoly of interest in concern for the downtrodden multitude comprising the "common" element of humanity.

One of the first disillusionments that comes to young voters as they grow into older voters is that the politician who stridently acclaims himself as the "friend of the people" usually proves a faker and a fraud. A true friend of the people doesn't have to advertise the fact by words. He doesn't find it necessary to condemn one element of our people in order to display his devotion to the people in general. He is successful or wealthy, has the same rights under the law and the constitution as the unsuccessful and the thrifless. The United States Constitution makes no distinction of class or group; its preamble simply refers to all of us as "we the people."

The primary idea of the self-proclaimed "friend of the people" and champion of the "common man" of course, is to gain his own political or personal ends by stirring up class feeling. In order to demonstrate his zeal, he must set up a "common enemy."

Good Taste

(J. FRANCINE MARKELL)

BREAKING ENGAGEMENT TO VETERAN

"Six months ago I became engaged to a man leaving for overseas a man whom I had known for only four months. He is now about to come home seriously wounded and I, for the past two months, now have been pondering over just what I should do since I find that I no longer love him. His letters are still very ardent and I know that he feels about me just as he did before leaving the country. There is someone else in my life now. Just should I handle this situation? Should I write to my fiancé and tell him or wait until he comes home. Or must I cling to my bargain and pretend things are the same?"

Answer: This is one of the most difficult problems I have ever been asked to help solve.

I have tried to put myself in your shoes, so that I might weigh the pros and cons carefully with your welfare, as well as the young man's, ever in mind.

Under ordinary, peacetime circumstances, an engagement is a pre-marital trial period entered into as a final test of temperamental compatibility or incompatibility resulting from propinquity. But the past days of war have changed all this considerably. So, consequently, even more care should be taken before uttering that little but mighty word "Yes." Under usual peacetime circumstances, a lady is granted the prerogative of changing her mind. And the man should be too, for it's better, indeed, to hurt one's erstwhile love temporarily than to dishonorably enter into a marriage that will spell naught but continual unhappiness and discontentment.

Your situation, however, is vastly different. You entered into the engagement in good faith and you must have realized the seriousness of your promise. You must have realized that you might have to spend your life caring for an invalid or a blind man or a psycho-neurotic and yet you gave your promise to marry him upon his return. It is tragic that your feelings have changed and his have not. Don't write and tell him. Wait until he comes home. Wait until you find the extent of his wounds. Then go along normally pretending that things are status quo and perhaps your old feeling for him will return. His absence hasn't given you a chance to grow. If he is seriously or permanently wounded, I don't see how you can possibly add to his misery by telling him you no longer love him. I know I couldn't.

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

Ecclesiastes 11:9.

RICHES

There are two kinds of riches here. For man with strength to earn and money to spend.

Both products of a brave career. By which the worth of him is known.

The first comprises bonds and lands. And coins of silver and of gold. Mute symbols that he understands. How things are made and bought and sold.

Yet, like the loveliest things of earth. More fragile is the second kind. Tied coiled in fleeting hours of mirth. And in an understanding mind.

Its vaults are hearts of folks and friends. Which keep dear, records of the past. Of gentleness which never ends. And love which knows no chilling blast.

And though man gain a fortune great. And hold it safe throughout his days. Save friendships gladden his estate. Despite his money, poor he stays. (Copyright, 1945, Edgar A. Guest)

Washington Report

Mackenzie King Proves Snappy Dresser

Canadian Premier Makes Hit In Capital

Service Paper Editors Discuss The War

By HELEN ESSARY (Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Prime Minister William Mackenzie King of Canada, was a paragon of what the well dressed prime minister should wear at a White House news conference recently. He wore a black suit, striped thin in white, a gray shirt also striped in white, and a dark tie, striped in white and held snug by a neat pearl pin, and nose glasses he ribboned in narrow black.

The expression of the prime minister showed well-controlled alarm as the newsmen and women charged into the oval study of Good Neighbor Roosevelt.

Obviously Mr. Roosevelt had said: "Mack," or "Mackenzie" or "Bill" (or whatever is the Canadian equivalent of Winston and Joe). "You will now see one of the best dressers Washington has to offer in any spring. Watch me crack the whip and snap the wild animals of the press." And crack the whip Mr. Roosevelt did. However it was fun.

If Jonathan Daniels is going to continue as White House publicity man, he will simply have to cut his name down. How about "John" or "Johnnie" to match "Steve" otherwise known as Stephen B. Early?

Daniels Name Too Long. Assistant Secretary of State William Clayton is a handsome fellow. Tall and straight and well featured. Looks a little like a college professor. Mrs. Clayton, not so tall, has witty knowing eyes and a friendly smile. They are the only two of the Mexican City conference have left them as they were—good, intelligent, nice American citizens. I like the Claytons whether it matters to them or not.

I have received in the mail a copy of the Globe News. The Globe News is one of those knowing papers now got out in odd corners of the world by servicemen with a sheet of paper, a broken down typewriter, a lot of brains and twice as much perseverance.

Papers Brag A Little. The Globe News admits it is "The Greatest Newspaper." And adds proudly: "It is the only newspaper in the world that is read by everyone." The sheet is published in Strader City—you tell me where that is. On the front page it touches gaily on such intense matters as "WAC Perfect Thirty-Four May Cause New 'Standard'." The Arrival of Campaign Ribbons, and What Causes Good Conduct Medals? On other pages are pictures of yearning maidens, small lively bits of world and camp news, plus a dash of sports.

In its editorial page the Globe News goes serious and produces some ideas close to my own way of thinking. I am greatly flattered to discover that the subject of one editorial is a question I recently asked in this column. To wit: "Why is it not possible to gauge success in war except by the number of men you kill or wound or the destruction you create? Couldn't there be some way to measure victory except by the yardstick of devastation and suffering?"

The editors of Globe News answer my question with: "Alfred, not Miss Essay." This is the stuff of Sherman, whose conflict was a strawberry festival compared with this one, was a master of understatement.

The Navy alone will spend about $10,000,000 daily solely for the production of bullets. Of course the other side has rockets, too. A paltry eight million would complete St. Alban's cathedral in Washington. . . . George Washington University struggles on with a niggardly endowment of two million.

The chaos of war goes deep. If this war does preserve our way of life, that way of life should be strong enough to provide other yardsticks for the measurement of success."

But, when I came back out into my little country town after the fashion show, I looked around me and saw some of our fat, fortyish and frumpy ladies who are very nice as ladies go but not much to look at.

And I was wondering why, when you can bag so nice by just wearing an old bean bag or a dolly or a soup plate the right way and by living like Hubbs around that old Mother-in-law drawing it in a little tight so many of you don't seem to care a fig what your mirror thinks of you.

That is—until your husband begins to notice other women. Copyright, 1945, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

PLAY

All young animals have their play times. They seem to enjoy themselves. It is a valuable part of their training.

Boys and girls need play too. In a country or small town the play problem is not very serious. The youngsters can take care of the situation without much trouble.

In cities it is different. The youngsters need places for play. It is a hard job to provide suitable places and necessary equipment. Play is just as necessary and helpful as work or

Air Terminals For Many Large Cities

DES MOINES, Ia. March 29.—(INS)—Many cities which now dot the route over which Transcontinental Airlines planes travel could look forward to the prospect of becoming passenger and freight terminals.

TWA officials, testifying before a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing which ended in Des Moines last night sought approval of their application to extend the company's service to include 70 cities.

E. O. Cocke, vice president of the company, said service would be provided to many important cities east of Chicago as well as west, including Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Reading, Pa., Fort Wayne, Ind., and Columbus, Cincinnati and Dayton, Ohio.

City Likely To Build New Pound

Possibility exists that within the not far distant future Mayor John F. Haven will ask councilman sanction to have a new city dog pound erected at the place where an inadequate place is now maintained.

The city has received a bid on a new truck which will be used to haul dogs to the pound. During the last month a number of people have been attacked by dogs, one found to have been mad, hence the quarantine imposed recently by Police Chief Robert D. Hanna.

ing your daily articles and have followed more or less your reading program with our son, 2 1/2. We began by reading nursery rhymes to him before his second birthday. Later came poems from under the Silver Umbrella and some from Stevenson's A Child's Garden of Verse.

Reading To Child

"I am writing for your reading list for the pre-school child. I have several lists of selected books but note the predominance of realistic stories. I am eager to find some fairy stories which my son will enjoy now. Many people think 2 or 3 is too young to begin folklore and fairy tales. However, I find Tucker is interested now in fairy tales. He says the fairies ride about on raindrops and sometimes tickle his toes. Though we have not encouraged his monologues of rhymes, Tucker surprises us by repeating many of them to himself. Lately, after a story has been read to him, he will close my book and announce he is going to tell me a story. His stories are about 'my jolly friend.'

Slot Machines Are Responsibility Of Local Governments

HARRISBURG, March 29.—(INS)—The responsibility for stamping out slot machines was placed squarely in the hands of local governments today by Gov. Edward Martin who denied reports that a statewide investigation was under way.

"The policy is for local governments to take care of those things and there hasn't been any new suggestions put up to me," the governor declared.

"It's always been the policy of the state to co-operate with local governments in the enforcement of the law," he added. The governor said the state police were "always willing and able to aid local governments when they request it."

certain breed of straw men as enemies of the masses and proceed to knock down and mutilate these figures. We have seen a lot of this sort of thing in American politics, but it appears to have reached a sort of peak within the last twelve years. Demagogues have succeeded only too well in creating not only class consciousness, but even group consciousness. It has largely erased our old political fundamentals and divided a large portion of the citizenship into "radicals" and "conservatives." Evidence of this trend are apparent in the cleavage in the present Congress and in the common use of the expression "rightists" and "leftists" in our Washington reports—a distinction common to France, Spain and other countries, where Communism has made strong gains.

None of these oratorical social uplifters can give any satisfactory definition, even to themselves, of whom they mean when they refer to the "common man" in America. If they pictured him truly, they would show him as an industrious, thrifty, patriotic citizen, pursuing his daily tasks as employee, manager, store keeper, shop owner, garage operator, gas station owner, salesman, professional man, bank teller, public employee, preacher, writer, tailor, florist; doing his best on the job, trying to raise a family and own a car and a home; supporting his church; keeping up his lodge or union membership; forming himself and living up to his responsibilities as a citizen, voter, taxpayer. He is not limited to the underfed and undernourished; neither is he differentiated from his fellow citizens of larger fortune in his thinking, hopes and emotions. The so-called "common man" in America is not common, for the vital reason that he is always looking to the future—a future that is bounded chiefly by his own industry and capabilities. The present head of the great American Telephone and Telegraph Company started as a bill collector. Henry Ford began his career as operator of a little repair shop. The heads of two of the country's largest railroad systems began as section hand and trainman. Walter Chrysler worked as a mechanic in a roundhouse. A president of General Motors as a young man worked as an office employee for Fifty Dollars a month. Thomas E. Dewey as a youth worked as a "soda jerk" and a farm hand. A list of the "big names" in American industry and business is a lot of "common" men who worked their way to the top. They needed no demagogues to guarantee their success, nor governmental pampering to make life soft.

The "common man" in the United States—if you can put your finger on him—is the freest, happiest man in the world. He has capacity to take care of himself without the false sympathy and crocodile tears of those who make him a helpless, pathetic victim of some dark, mysterious forces in order to inspire him with the class hatreds that have brought other nations to disaster.

The "common man" in America is "we, the people"—all the people of the United States of America.

COMMUNION SERVICE AT FIRST BAPTIST

At the First Baptist church on Good Friday, at 7:45 p. m., there will be a candlelight communion service. The choir will present appropriate music.

Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, pastor, will bring a timely meditation on the theme, "A Crossless Christ."

Captain Takes German Gun Nest Singlehandedly

Private Tells Of Exploit Of Pennsylvania Hero Who Was Later Killed In Action

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy, (delayed)—(INS)—Capt. Robert E. Roeder, of Summit Station, Pa., who was awarded the medal of honor posthumously, today was revealed to have singlehandedly killed two German machine gunners and captured three other Nazis in one day's activity on the Fifth Army front.

Pfc. Herbert Cote, of Fort Kent, Me., a runner in Roeder's company, told of the "Blue Devil" division officer's actions near Volterra, when a Jerry machine gun atop a knoll poured lead into the Doughboy ranks.

"Capt. Roeder took off toward the gun about 300 yards away, crouching and crawling until he reached it. Then he grabbed the hot barrel of the stuttering machine gun and pulled it from position," Cote said.

"He killed two of the Jerries with fire from his carbine, and clubbed a third one on the head with the butt of his carbine and captured him."

On the way back to the company, Cote continued, Capt. Roeder circled a knoll and brought in two more prisoners.

"Capt. Roeder was always doing things like that himself," the soldier said. "If he considered a job dangerous, he did it personally."

From 1820 to the beginning of the Civil war, about 5,000,000 persons from England, Ireland and Germany migrated to the United States.

T-5 John Sylvester Gets Bronze Star

Awards Made To Local Infantryman On December 23, 1944, Somewhere In Belgium

T-5 John R. Sylvester, 20 years, stationed with the Infantry of the 6th Armored Division in Belgium, has been awarded the bronze star, and a citation, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester, 411 Electric street.

T-5 Sylvester disregarded his personal safety when he jumped on a flaming truck containing gasoline, and carried the driver to safety shortly before the truck crashed into a building. The convoy truck was bombed by the Germans and then burst into flames, but not before the local infantryman was able to save the driver.

For this meritorious achievement, T-5 Sylvester received the bronze star and a citation on December 23, 1944.

He has been in service since June 1943 and served overseas since December, 1943.

His brother, Corp. Ernest Sylvester, of the Infantry was wounded in Belgium in January, and is now confined in a hospital in Tennessee, where he is convalescing.

DOGS TO RIDE TO THEIR DEATH NOW

Within a few days stray dogs will be taken for their last ride. In fact heretofore they have been walked to the pound for imprisonment or to their death and canine lovers who watched the dogs being led by the dog-catcher with a loop around the dogs' necks, didn't like the idea. So today, acting upon the recommendation of Mayor John Haven and the city mechanic, Chris Walker, council agreed to pay $600, to W. W. Weingartner for a 1941 used truck.

Presidents Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur and Benjamin Harrison wore beards. Presidents Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt and Taft wore mustaches.

Reports Being Made On Drive

Y. M. C. A. Membership Teams Are Making First Checkup Report In Rally Today

TWENTY TEAMS TAKING PART

Reports are being made today by the teams engaged in the annual membership rally of the Y. M. C. A. and General Chairman Jesse N. Kerr is looking for splendid results. There are 20 teams engaged in the drive, under the leadership of Alex Samuels and Lee Campbell, who are captaining the two sides taking part in the effort. They have called upon their team captains to be sure and turn in their reports sometime during the day. There are four boys' teams and 16 men's teams taking part in the effort.

Hope For Speedy Success
It is hoped that the membership rally can be concluded in record time this year, and will be. Chairman Kerr emphasizes, if the team members will make an effort to help their prospects as soon as possible.

The war has taken a great number of young men away from their accustomed places at the association, necessitating replacements. The association provides recreation, both physical and mental, as well as spiritual guidance, provides dormitories for men away from home and has a well developed program to keep the youth of the city busy. A membership in the Y. M. C. A., which costs but a small amount, if presented to some youth, may be the means of leading him on to a life of useful citizenship. General Secretary R. L. Meermans stated today. Adults who have no sons of their own, but who would like to sponsor a boy, are asked to subscribe when they are visited by one of the members of the teams. The membership can then be assigned to some boy who will make good use of it.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT

Without Stomach Relievers To Get Happy Relief from Gassy, Bloating, Tight-around-the-Waist Misery You May Need This Kind of Laxative Help

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 28 feet, or more, of intestines that the greater part of digestion is done. Among the vital digestive juices that work in the intestines, the liver bile is one of the most important—especially vital to the digestion of fats. Unless the liver bile flows sufficiently, digestion of fats slows down. Food decays in bowels. You may get constipated and feel full of gassy, bloated, indigestion misery. That's when you need Beecham's Pills. They help get the bile juice flowing freely, which helps you digest and eliminate in Nature's happy way. Ask your druggist for gentle, all-vegetable Beecham's Pills today. Caution: Use only as directed. 26¢.

At Least One Jap Has Sense Of Humor

THE PHILIPPINES, March 29.—(INS)—There's at least one Jap with a sense of humor. Ask Lieutenant (jg) John B. Muolo, USN, of 415 Ruby street, Redondo Beach, Calif., pilot of a Navy Mariner seaplane.

On a night hop recently, Lieutenant (jg) Muolo saw a number of Jap warships northwest of Manila bay.

Disregarding the tremendous odds against a lone patrol the Navy pilot made a swift bombing run on a light cruiser, and then zoomed away.

"I thought my bombs had straddled the ship," the pilot reported, "but a few minutes later, a Jap cut in on our radio circuit and said, 'Neat miss on cruiser, twelve merchant ships sitting in harbor just ahead.'"

"The Jap must have known I had expended all my bombs."

On the same night before encountering the cruiser, Lieutenant

(jg) Muolo sank two small freighters, and scored a direct bomb hit and probably sank a third. In a month of nightmare flying, he has also bagged several other small merchant ships and a freighter transport, an earned an assist in the destruction of a submarine.

Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, the reservoir basin of the Mississippi, was formed by an earthquake in 1811.

Over 1,850,000 books for servicemen were collected in a two-week drive in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Grows His Tobacco Beside His House

CHICAGO, Mar. 29.—(INS)—Others may be concerned by the tobacco shortage, but not Herman F. Otte, a consistent pipe smoker from dawn 'til sunset.

The reason for his indifferent attitude is simple. He grows his own. For the past five summers he has produced a tobacco patch in a lot adjoining his home in the heart of the city, so today he merely smiles when he passes a long line of tobacco-hungry customers.

As the small man leaned back in his chair, clutching his corn cob pipe puffing white streams of smoke, he explained his procedure of curing tobacco.

Each summer when the stalks are matured, they are cut and hung from the rafters in the garage for drying purposes. The drying process completed, the stalks are now placed in a box to age for about three years. Periodically he sprinkles rum on the vintage during this aging period.

For the first four years of his experiment Otte, a retired carpenter, raised between 400 to 500 stalks each season. Last summer, however, he grew only half a dozen stalks for he believes he has enough stored in his garage and basement to last for the duration.

Otte's neighbors also benefit from his tobacco-growing, for he keeps the pipe smokers and tobacco chewers well supplied.

See Controversy
On Independence
For Philippines

One Faction Accuses Administration Of Making 'Political Football' Of Issue

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—The question of independence for the Philippines was rapidly growing into a heated controversy today as a faction in congress accused the administration of making "a political football" of the issue.

And from Manila, it was learned that Philippine leaders are alarmed over the trend in Washington to withhold the granting of independence.

Congressional sources who favor immediate independence said that Secretary of Interior Ickes and former Philippine High Commissioner Paul V. McNutt are attempting to make a case for keeping American control of the islands for the time being.

This move, it was said, was a counter measure against the plans of the state department to go ahead with recognition and to send an ambassador to the Philippines. It was regarded as significant that the interior department appropriation bill has been revised to include funds for the salary of a high commissioner. Officials of that department explained that the commissioner and experts would go to the islands only to make a survey. But Filipinos themselves interpret this move as the return of full American control.

Yank Wins Tall
Story Contest
With Rat Tale

WITH THE AMERICAN INFANTRY DIVISION. Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific Area, Mar. 29.—(INS)—A charter member of the Southwest Pacific Liar's club is Pfc. Bernard S. Shieft, of Jersey City, N. J.

The club was begun by the regimental newspaper, The Globe-Trotter, in an effort to capitalize on the G. I.'s avid interest in the tall story, the fable, and the downright lie.

The Globe-Trotter in their printing of Shieft's story noted that "as usual, Koiso of the Tokyo chapter told the biggest whoppers of the week in his nightly broadcasts" and then added that the Shieft's tale was the biggest one by an American soldier.

Pfc. Shieft's story follows: "Rats used to be a nuisance in my tent but not any more. I used military psychology on them. Being friendly with them I began calling them after the fellows in my tent. Lucy (after Sgt. Luke O'Connor, Pittsburgh, Pa.), Willie (after Sgt. William R. Weber, Newark, N. J.) and so on. I was kind to them and fed them."

"It got so that the rats began to think of themselves as soldiers. Every morning when the bugle blew these rats tumbled out of their holes and lined up for inspection. Their stolen crumbs lined up neatly before them."

"Only this morning Willie was 'sized' because his whiskers were too long."

California Flyer
Hits Jap Transport

THE PHILIPPINES.—(INS)—A night-flying Mariner seaplane, piloted by Lieutenant Howard E. Rumrey USNR, off 115 Highland avenue, Burlingame, Calif., seriously damaged and probably sank a 7,000-ton transport recently off Bondee Peninsula, Luzon, P. I. The "Nightmare" made a bombing run at masthead level, scoring at least one direct hit. The big ship was straddled on three more runs. As the aircraft, Seventh Fleet, plane left the scene, the transport was settling rapidly at the stern and listing.

Co-pilot of the two-engine seaplane was Ensign William C. Fritz, USNR, of 1228 North Washington street, Lansing, Mich., and 1536 Hickory street, Miles, Mich. The navigator was Lieutenant (jg) Mervin S. Hammond of Montrose.

Vote Of Miners Calls For Strike

Result Of Poll Taken By Miners On Wednesday
Is Announced

WASHINGTON, March 29—(INS)—President Roosevelt was apprised of the wartime coal crisis today in a notification that the nation's bituminous miners have voted overwhelmingly to strike in support of their 1945 wage demands.

The National Labor Relations Board certified to the White House the results of the first strike poll ever conducted in the soft coal field. It amounted to a rousing vote of confidence for UMW President John L. Lewis from the union rank-and-file.

The miners, Mr. Roosevelt was informed, voted by a top-heavy margin to "permit an interruption of war production" if their wage demands are not granted by the time the present contract expires at midnight Saturday.

Complete returns from 90 districts in the NLRB-supervised election showed:

In favor of a strike, 208,718.
Against a strike, 25,156.
The total vote disclosed 233,874.
Miners eligible to vote, 236,418 votes cast; 1,518 ballots void and 1,026 votes challenged.

Railroads Help In Winning War

Superintendent John Edwards, Jr., of Akron Division, B. and O., addresses Kiwanis

TELLS LOCAL ANGLES OF RAIL ACTIVITY

How the railroads of the country have contributed to the winning of the war, was told by John Edwards, Jr., superintendent of the Akron division of the B. & O. railroad, when he addressed New Castle Kiwanis club at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton on Wednesday.

Troop trains and vast trainloads of war munitions and supplies have been transported back and forth across the country to ports of embarkation, to be sent overseas, not only to our armies, but also to the Allied nations in lend-lease equipment, which has helped materially in shortening the war.

Mr. Edwards warned against government ownership pressure against the railroads or any other of the big corporations, because he stated that they are more efficiently run under private ownership, and provide greater opportunity for the employed to rise to the top of the ranks, citing both Daniel Willard, former president of the B. & O., and R. N. White, the present president, both of whom rose to the very top of the ladder from the lowest rung.

Mr. White, he stated, began his railroad career as a station helper.

Big Factor Here
He told how important the B. & O. railroad is to the city of New Castle, employing 1,500 men and women here, and handling a tremendous amount of traffic. In one single day, recently, he stated, 34 trains were brought in and out of the New Castle terminal, a movement of almost 2,000 cars.

He also told how secretly train movements involving the war effort are carried out, such movements being referred to by code, which can only be deciphered by the officials concerned in their movements. He told of riding a prisoner of war train through here recently, the coaches being specially designed for this purpose, so that every occupant of the car is within the vision of the guards stationed at either end, armed with a tommy gun.

Both officers and enlisted men are handled alike on these movements. He also told of the movement of wounded men in special hospital trains, with every comfort provided for them as far as has been possible. Mr. Edwards, it was disclosed, was wounded in the last war and knows the value of such things to these men.

Guests of the club from Deshon hospital annex were: Sgt. James E. Mays of Lancaster, Pa., who served overseas with the medical unit of the 320th infantry and was wounded at Metz, and Pfc. George Lauier of Junction City, O., who was with a railway operations battalion of the third army. He was wounded at St. Lo.

A new city hall was completed in New York City in 1700, this becoming "New Federal Hall," and on April 30, 1789, George Washington there took the oath of office as first president of the United States.

Schedule Changes At Youth Center

Swing Lobby was limited Wednesday evening this week as the recreation center will be closed on Good Friday, according to Mrs. Herbert Dean, supervisor of the center.

Changes have been scheduled for Saturday evening also, because of the size of the junior high school crowds at the dances in the center. The schools have been divided so as to place the students in one of two equal groups which will alternate in attending the Saturday evening events.

Students from Ben Franklin junior high school and St. Mary's junior high school will be admitted on Saturday evening, March 31. On April 7, the center will be open to pupils from George Washington junior high school, the Mahoning school, SS: Philip and James and St. Michael's schools.

These schools will alternate accordingly from now on, with Ben Franklin and St. Mary's youngsters dancing on Saturday evening, April 14.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS REACH LUZON

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mitchell of 4 Cliff street have received word from their son Pvt. Edward Mitchell, that he is now on the island of Luzon in the Philippines and getting along fine. He is attached to the medical corps, with the 145th infantry.

Pvt. Mitchell says he has received quite a number of his Christmas boxes and they were in splendid condition; they had followed him from New Guinea where he was formerly stationed. The boxes were sent, some as early as August.

He has been in the service over 17 months and overseas seven months.

NEEDS PAINT

Within a short time it is probable the county commissioners will let a contract for repainting the Cherry street bridge. The paint job is getting bad and it has been recommended to the commissioners that the work should be done this year.

TO SURFACE BRIDGES

Two bridges will be resurfaced when the state resurfaces Washington street through the business district and Moravia street. On Wednesday the county commissioners passed a resolution authorizing East Washington street bridge and the Moravia street bridge over Big Run to be resurfaced by the contractor who will do the street work. It is estimated both jobs will cost about $1,200.

COURTHOUSE TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Following the usual custom, the court house offices will be closed all day Friday, March 30, which is Good Friday.

OUTSIDE LOOKING IN

Mrs. Evelyn McKibben the switchboard operator at the court house has a friend, a four legged one who stands up on the window sill and peeks through the bars here every day. The friend is a squirrel and the suspicion is that his friendship arises from her habit of feeding him peanuts every day.

The squirrel stands up on his hind feet and grabs hold of the iron bars on the window as if trying to force his way through.

A year before Gen. Douglas MacArthur invaded the Philippines, his forces were fighting in New Guinea, almost 1,500 miles from those islands.

Joint Probe Of Delinquency Is Under Way Here

State, County And City Officials Delving Into Causes Of Juvenile And Adult Delinquency

State, county and city police authorities, also juvenile officials have joined in a campaign to prevent as much as possible not only juvenile but also adult delinquency, not only in the city but also in the county of Lawrence and the authorities warned that investigations may go beyond the state line into Ohio.

The report was signed by Sergeant John J. Burke, state police; J. M. Dunlap, juvenile officer of Lawrence county; Charles D. Ross, county detective and Robert D. Hanna, chief of police.

While the campaign is only in its infancy, the officials stated today that preliminary inquiries have established several facts, as follow.

Facts Recalled

1—It is not so much juvenile delinquency as lack of parental attention.

2—What juvenile delinquency does exist, such as children of tender age being unrestrained as to hours, late at night on streets, is due to (a) both parents are working (b) parents are "celebrating."

The report explained that the campaign was launched because of children on streets in early hours in the morning, a factor which might lead to serious escapades and also because soldiers had written here concerning alleged derelictions of their wives.

It was also caused, the report stated because wives had alleged their husbands "are running around with some girl or woman where both were employed and that the husbands were not properly maintaining their families."

Carry Probe Into Ohio

The report stated that during the recent past, complaints have resulted in investigations being carried on concerning persons crossing into Ohio believing their alleged escapades would not be discovered. Such inquiries would be continued, the report asserted.

The report also stated the authorities would appreciate cooperation from the public, especially as to "undesirables who may be of the opinion that they can loiter and not work." Such persons often may be fugitives from other places the report stated.

The four, all heads of various law enforcement agencies here, stated there are legal ways whereby these evils may be curbed and pointed out now is the time for preventive action rather than to wait until serious delinquency strikes this section and a cure is difficult.

Therefore, from the report, it is gleaned that all branches of the state, county and city have combined to stamp out as much juvenile and adult delinquency as possible.

Simplify Hitchhiking At Kaiser War Plant

RICHMOND, Cal. — (INS) — There's no limit to the ingenuity of shipyard workers. Homer E. Estes, an engineer at Kaiser Co. Inc., yard three here, has received a certificate of merit from the U. S. Maritime commission for a suggestion to facilitate hitchhiking.

Estes' suggestion is simplicity itself. There are four shipyards here: a workman trying to hitch a ride to work merely holds up the proper number of fingers to indicate to which yard he is going.

Sound silly? Not at all. Most drivers pass up hikers because they don't want to make unnecessary stops along the way. But if a driver with room to spare knows the prospective rider is heading for the same yard he'll usually stop for him.

The Maritime commission agreed the plan should help to get careless workmen to their jobs on time.

REPORT MISERY STALKS HAMBURG

Refugee Reaching Zurich Tells Of War Misery In German City; Much Scarcity

By WARREN IRVIN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
ZURICH, (Delayed)—(INS)—Residents of Hamburg, bomb-stricken German port, are speculating in air raid shelters as to whether the first Allied troops arriving there will be Russian or American or British, according to the Geneva newspaper, La Suisse.
In an interview with a woman refugee recently arrived from Hamburg, La Suisse discloses that electricity in the port is so scarce that housewives possessing such luxuries have been forbidden to use vacuum cleaners or other electrical appliances.

No Window Glass
Glass to replace shattered windows, says the paper, is unobtainable in Hamburg and throughout the winter residents have been obliged to stuff newspapers, surplus bedding or old rags into paneless window frames to protect themselves against the icy northern blasts. Lumber is reported to be almost as scarce as glass.

To add to the general misery,

thousands of refugees from eastern Germany have poured into Hamburg, and regular residents have had to share with them their own scanty food and clothing stocks.

Employment Office Plans To Continue With 'Open House'

Although not as many people reported to the employment office's open house this week as last, at least 14 referrals were made Wednesday evening, according to George R. Gettings, manager of the office. A few of the 25 persons who reported were skilled workers, and all were interested in working in the top priority industries. About half were boys under 18 years of age.

The office will remain open at least one more Wednesday evening to receive applications from anyone interested in part-time or supplemental work, as well as application for full-time work from those who are not now employed in essential industries.

Easter Sunrise Memorial Service At First Methodist

At 6:15 a. m. on Easter morning, chimes of the First Methodist church will call the congregation to Easter sunrise memorial service at 6:30 o'clock.
For this unusual service the church chancel is banked with potted blooming plants placed there on Saturday by anyone who wishes to, as a memorial. These plants then represent the Garden of Joseph of Arimathea, where Christ was buried, and the Easter memorial service at 6:30 will be held among these flowers in the "Garden of the Resurrection."
No word is spoken after entering the church. This is the only service throughout the entire year with no leader on the platform. The service is automatic and promises to be truly wonderful this year. Flowers may be gotten again on Sunday night.

PROGRAM SUNDAY AT PLAINGROVE CHURCH

Those who will take part in the program are: leader, Geraldine Wilmer; pianist, Mrs. Gay Shaw; Spirit of Life, Donna Hammerschmidt; Spirit of Death, Dorothy Martin; Spirit of Easter, Dorothy Shaw; primary children and the choir.

Graf Zeppelins Were Destroyed On Hitler's Orders

FRANKFURT—AM—MAIN, Germany, March 29.—(INS)—The destruction on Hitler's orders of the world famed dirigible Graf Zeppelin and the larger and newer sister ship, Graf Zeppelin II, was revealed on the entry of American forces into Frankfurt, home base of the great air ships.
The big globe-girdling craft were blown up, along with their hangers,

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw tender inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

The famed zeppelin works and small airship hangers suffered a like fate at Friedrichshafen.
The Nazi action wiped out the life work of Dr. Hugo Eckener, 77-year-old zeppelin pioneer. Dr. Eckener, it was learned, now is living with a daughter near Bodenz.

New Castle Merchants, many of them Legionnaires themselves, are co-operating in the project to secure boats, fishing tackle, and old golf balls for the use of the wounded men at Deshon Annex, to provide them with recreation.

has found, and the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, is sponsoring the project.

In order to secure new or re-conditioned golf balls, it is necessary to turn in old balls, and it is the latter which are sought, but donations of balls which are still playable will not be refused.

Similarly, used fishing tackle, even though it may need some minor repairs is desired. There are men among the 300 veterans stationed at the hospital who are handy enough to make the repairs needed.

Cascade Park lake is just down over the hill from the annex, and boats are desirable for their using. Rowing, it has been found, exercises muscles which need to have the stiffness caused by wounds, ironed out.

So folks, here is an opportunity for you to get rid of some of this stuff in a very good cause.

Merchants, who are aiding in the project, and with whom these articles can be left, include the following: Gerson's Jewelry, Harry's Furniture Store, New Castle Dry Goods, Eckerd's Drug Store, Perel-man's Jewelry Store, Reynolds & Summers, and McCann, and the Sporting Goods Store. A receipt will be found at these places, where the articles can be left.

In the case of boats, which someone is willing to donate the use of, word can also be left there, or with the committee. Walter G. Dietler, chairman, C. C. Sweesy, and R. L. Boyd, or by notifying any member of the American Legion.

Clarence Hulderman, Escaped Convict, Poses As St. Louis Hurier, Leaves Bad Checks

GREENSBURG, Pa., March 29.—(INS)—State police and business men of Greensburg today were anxious to get their hands on an escaped convict from a Kentucky prison who had hoodwinked the businessmen into feeding him as Denny Galehouse, star pitcher for the St. Louis Browns.

Not long after their "celebrity" left "for spring training and to get into condition for another pennant winning season," his checks began bouncing like a flock of foul balls. And that, state police said, was why they were seeking Clarence Hulderman, 40, alias Paul Holden and George Logan.

Moreover, they expostulated, he gave the state police as reference in cashing his phony checks.

Warden A. S. Nunn, of La Grange, Ky., said Hulderman escaped from there October 12 and that he had again escaped from a guard who was bringing him back from Detroit where he was arrested three days after his first break.

The Trade Council of Kidderminster, England, has protested against absenteeism of some members of parliament.

Firemen Kept On Jump At Noon Today

Alarms For Two Small Fires Come In Close Proximity During Noonhour

City firemen were kept on the jump during the noon hour today, two calls coming in close proximity to each other, but neither being for fires of any consequence, Chief James E. Thomas reports.

Just before 12 o'clock, firemen were called to the home of Ronald Anderson, of 417 Sheridan avenue, where a spark from the chimney set fire to the shingles. Damage of around $10 was done. Mrs. Frank Wood, owner of the home, who resides next door, saw the fire when it started, and it did not have a chance to gain any headway.

While three companies were at this fire, an alarm from Box 54 called firemen to the King Humbert Hall on Division street, where it was found some rubbish was afire in the back of the building. No loss resulted.

At 9:35 P. M. Wednesday, firemen were called to the Castleton Auto Wreckers, 613 South Mill street, where someone had set fire to two old autos in the wrecking yard.

At 7:15 p. m. Wednesday, someone notified firemen that there was a bad fire at 409 Norwood avenue. Firemen on arrival found the occupant was burning some leaves, and that there was no occasion for the alarm.

City Solicitor Says County Can't Sell City-Owned Lot

Lawrence county is taxing the possessions of the city used for public purposes according to a notice prepared by City Solicitor Robert M. White which council filed and copies of which were sent by the solicitor to County Treasurer Frank Hill and the Lawrence County Board of Assessment and Revision.

White advised council and Mr. Hill that "you propose to offer for sale" property which is being used for public purposes and is no subject to taxation. The fact is, Solicitor White pointed out that the lot referred to lies in the bed of the Big Run, which run is a part of the city sewer system, has been used as such for years and was developed by the city with the assistance of the county.

"If you persist in undertaking to sell this property (for taxes) which is already devoted to public use, it will be necessary for the city to ask for relief from the courts," White'smissive asserted.

He also advised the County Assessment and Revision board that is has placed on the assessment list nine acres in East Brook street purchased by the city from the county for public use; for storage of streets material and quarrying of stone and that the property should be placed on the non-taxable list.

Affects Food Supply

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—Secretary of War Henry L. Seek Extension Of Coal Parley

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—Under the pressure of an overwhelming strike vote by the nation's miners, soft coal operators sought today to reach an agreement with the United Mine Workers Union on wage retroactivity which would permit an extension of the existing pay agreement.

Stimson's comment was inspired by a question that pointed out that Acting Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson last week had noted this situation despite the fact that the Army has top priorities on food.

"The existence of priorities does not facilitate procurement," Stimson answered.

Combat on the western front made necessary the replacement of 3,000 tires on American vehicles daily, army statistics reveal.

New Castle Sergeant Saves His Equipment At Risk Of Own Life

(Special To The News)

WITH THE 30TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN GERMANY—Sgt. Harold Leonard of New Castle, Pa., an artilleryman with the 30th, has proved his worth as a radioman with the artillery forward observer. While near the front supervising communicating between the observing officer and the artillery battery, Sergeant Leonard came under German observation, and was immediately under a barrage of artillery. Seeing that his command car with all of his radio equipment was exposed, Sergeant Leonard dashed through the hail of shells to the car and drove it out of the shell area to the protection of a nearby house.

The sergeant has been in combat for nine months, fighting through France, Belgium, Holland and Germany.

Allied Offensive Drive In Italy Is Due Shortly, Clark

ROME, March 29. — (INS)—A theocratic Allied offensive in Italy, presumably on a large scale, was heralded by Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark in a broadcast to Italian patriots warning them to be ready for action this spring.

The Allied commander declared that "large scale action" will develop "sooner or later" during the spring months and told the long-waiting patriot bands that they have been assigned specific parts in the drive.

"It is certain," General Clark declared, "that patriots in the central Appennine area will be called on for specific assistance shortly."

These groups, he said, already possess stocks of arms and further assistance will be extended them.

Holy women at the tomb.

"I know that ye seek Jesus Who hath been crucified." He is not here; for He is risen.—Matt. 28:6.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for April 1 is Matt. 27:57-28:10; Heb. 12:1, 2, the Memory Verse being Matt. 28:5, 6, "I know ye seek Jesus who hath been crucified. He is not here; for He is risen.")

Jesus, the perfect One, had been put to death. Apparently He had few friends. His disciples had forsaken Him, afraid of being associated with Him. But he really had one friend—a rich man named Joseph of Arimathea, possibly a member of the Sanhedrin. He, too, was afraid to admit openly, while Christ still lived, that he was a follower.

Now the Lord was dead. He boldly went to Pilate and asked that he might have the body for burial. Pilate gave his consent, as according to Jewish law, a person who had been executed must be taken from the tree that same night.

Doubtless others helped Joseph and they took the body of Jesus from the tree, wrapped it in clean linen, and carried it to the tomb which Joseph had cut from the rock, probably for his own burial. Reverently they must have laid it in the tomb and rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

Next day the chief priests and Pharisees went to Pilate and asked to have the sepulchre made secure, for fear that the disciples would open it at night, steal the body.

and then go about telling that Jesus had risen. It was just the sort of trick that they themselves would have been capable of, so they charged the disciples with thinking of it. They expected Pilate to see that this was done, but he said they could do whatever they thought proper—doubtless rather weary of these smug men. "So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch."

Women Come At Dawn
"In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre."

"And behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it."

"His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow."

"And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men."

"And the angel answered and said unto the women, fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified."

"He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

The angel also told them to go quickly and tell the disciples that "He is risen from the dead, and behold, He goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him; lo, I have told you."

Filled with joy and thankfulness the two Marys ran to tell the disciples and behold, Jesus met them saying, "All hail!" They were frightened, but they came to Him and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him.

Jesus told them not to be afraid, but to go and inform the disciples; tell them to go into Galilee, and "there they shall see Me."

While this Lesson deals primarily with the death and resurrection of Jesus, it seems really to finish the story to add that Jesus did meet His disciples in Galilee, where so much of His teaching life was spent, and where most of His miracles of healing took place. There He told them, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." He also assured them, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In Hebrews 12, Paul wrote, "Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us."

"Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

Asks Citizens To Donate Clothes

HARRISBURG, March 29.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin asked each Pennsylvanian to contribute five pounds of clothing during April to help clothe "the 125 millions of persons living in the war-devastated countries of the world."

"We in this country are living in the greatest luxury in comparison to the homeless, footless and clothless persons of many lands," the governor stated, "the clothing does not have to be in perfect condition but should be clean and usable."

St. Josephs And Gersons Win In Sharon Tourney

All-Star Teams Advance To Second Round Of Tournney At Sharon Buhl Club Floor

FACE TOUGH FOES IN SECOND ROUND

New Castle and Lawrence county All-Star basketball teams won their opening games in the eighth annual benefit basketball tournament at the Sharon Buhl club gym floor yesterday, and will return to play in the second round tonight and Friday.

The St. Joseph's quintet made up of former New Castle High stars—Bill Andrews and Fred Wimer, with a few of the House league players from the "Y," defeated the Warren, O. A. & P. team yesterday, 41 to 14, with Wimer having 18 points and Andrews 9. Warren did not offer any opposition to speak of. Friday the Saints will go back to the tourney to play the winner of the Sharon American Legion-Salem Clippers game, it was announced by Joe Hoyle, business manager of the Saints.

Gersons Play Tonight

The Lawrence County All-Stars, playing under the name of the Gersons, whipped the Sharpville All-Stars, made up of the Sharpville High championship team, the score being 35 to 28. Eddie "Coach" Nahas, is directing the Gersons in the tourney. The Jewellers got away to a flying start with a 9 to 2 count in the first period, then led 17 to 10 at the half, and 24 to 18 at the end of the third period.

Jim Grinnen and Guy Bennett of Wampum combined to have 19 of the Gerson points, with Al Koszela of New Castle High, Chuck Tanner of Shenango, and Ben Korab of Union, supplying 15 of the points. The team played very fine basketball and will more than likely advance in the tourney, meeting the winner of the Oil City and Alliance, O. game tonight at 11 o'clock in the second round.

Colman Reports To Pirates At Camp In Muncie

Expects To Have Big Year; Had Operation To Correct
Trick Knee

MUNCIE, Ind., March 29.—(INS)—Pirate hopes for a 1945 pennant were up a peg today with the appearance of "Swisher" Frank Colman, hard-hitting right-fielder, in yesterday's batting drills at the Muncie training camp.

Several months ago in St. Louis, Colman underwent an operation for a trick knee that plagued him during the 1943 season. Fans who saw him pack a few in the distance recesses of Forbes Field would have enjoyed the two 400-footers Colman "swished" out yesterday and the coaching staff took heart at the firmness with which he pivoted on the ailing right leg.

Having tripped the Parker Boosters, a Muncie semi-pro team, by a 12-0 score yesterday, the Pirates confined their activities today to conventional drills.

Cleveland-Hershey Tangle For Trophy

CLEVELAND, March 29.—(INS)—Revenue was sweet today for the Cleveland Barons.

They clinched the semi-final series in the American Hockey League's playoffs last night by defeating Buffalo, 6 to 4, before 8,563 fans on the Bisons' home ice for their fourth victory of the series against two losses.

In winning, the Barons avenged the four straight losses they suffered a year ago at the hands of the Bisons in the finals. Now they will face the Hershey Bears, winner of the second-place semi-finals, in the final series for the Calder cup, opening in the Cleveland Arena Saturday night.

Even Train Whistle Causes Peace Rumors

MCKEESPORT, Pa., March 29.—(INS)—Residents of McKeesport today were steered against all signs and symbols of V-E day—the endless shriek of a whistle that yesterday bolstered their hopes turned out to be a jammed train whistle.

Police reported that after being swamped with phone calls from persons wanting to know if "it was true," an investigation proved the cause of the uproar to a whistle on a Pittsburgh & Erie train that was stuck while the train raced the entire length of the city.

MAJOR LUTZ GETS NEW ASSIGNMENT

Major R. C. Lutz, who was formerly stationed at Camp Lee, Va., where he was in charge of the dental department of the Station Hospital, and who has been recently stationed at Fort Lewis, Tacoma, Wash., has recently been given a new assignment.

Major Lutz is now stationed at the Barnes General Hospital, Vancouver, Wash.

ARMY NUDGES DODGERS

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 29.—(INS)—Like the Nazis, the Brooklyn Dodgers conceded today that the U. S. Army is well-nigh invincible after the Bums led the West Point nine ship through a tenth inning, 5-to-4 victory yesterday. Army triumphed when pitcher Ralph Benda issued a pass to Dick McConnell of the Dodgers with the bases loaded in the overtime stanza. Meanwhile, Branch Rickey announced the sale of hurler John Whitlow Wyatt to the Phillies.

Black wolves have been seen in northern Canada—news item. Against the snowdrifts of this record winter, it would have been a miracle if they hadn't been seen.

Famous Chaplain Of Bataan Fight Reported Missing

NEW YORK, March 29.—(INS)—The Rev. William T. Cummings, the Army chaplain on Bataan credited with originating the expression, "there are no atheists in foxholes," was reported missing today by the Mary-Knoll fathers.

Father Cummings, who continued to lead Bataan heroes in prayer during a Jap air raid although he was wounded by flying shrapnel, was last known to be aboard an enemy transport bound for Japan. The ship was one of three sunk by an American submarine last December.

SMALL BOY SHOT WHILE OUT AFTER "JAPS" WITH GUN

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—(INS)—Seven-year-old Louis Barbaro today was in the hospital, the end of a venture in which he borrowed his father's 22 revolver to "kill Japs."

Louis was shot in the abdomen during a tussle with a playmate for possession of the gun, Pittsburgh homicide detectives reported. In "fair" condition at the Pittsburgh hospital, Louis told detectives that he took the gun from a locked dresser in his father's bedroom. He said he had thought the gun was unloaded.

GO ON RATION LIST

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(INS)—The Office of Price Administration announced today that all infants' leather shoes will be placed on the ration list beginning May 1 in a move designed to increase the supply of larger sizes.

Two more months, says Grandpappy Jenkins, and it should be warm enough for Grandma to start wearing her fur neckpiece.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Paper Holiday Starts April 1

HARRISBURG, March 29.—With plans going forward in every county in the state for the observance of Pennsylvania's paper holiday, announced by Governor Martin to begin on April 1, the War Production board has reduced the amount of wood pulp to be used for facial tissues, paper towels, wrapping paper, bags and other civilian paper items in April, May and June.

The reductions were ordered, according to WPB, because it was found necessary to curtail allotments of pulp to paper and paperboard mills by about 82,000 tons under the amount authorized for the present quarter.

Wood pulp authorized for the manufacture of kraft grocery and variety bag paper for the first quarter of this year was 79,432 tons, and a further cut of 10 per cent was made on February 6. It was announced in Washington that of the 82,000 cut for the second quarter of the year, nearly one-half, or 40,000 tons, was in coarse paper, such as grocery bag and butcher paper. The next largest curtailment is in book paper.

Purposes of paper holiday in Pennsylvania are twofold, according to Warren R. Roberts chairman of the state salvage committee. "First," said Roberts, "it is necessary that we conserve paper, because well over 50 per cent of our production goes to the armed forces, and we face a shortage of 3,000,000 tons this year.

"Second, it is necessary that we salvage all paper of all kinds. We must make up this shortage by salvaging 2,000,000 tons and conserving 1,000,000 tons of paper.

South Carolina's representatives to the Continental Congress, especially Charles Pinckney, were active in their efforts to bring about the convention of 1787, which framed the Constitution of the United States.
